MACUMA appreciates your support. It's with the participation of our business partners that allow us to continuously offer the most comprehensive training, education and networking opportunities for credit union professionals. We are confident your partnership with MACUMA will benefit your organization, as much as it will benefit the MACUMA membership who participate in our outstanding programs throughout the year which are made possible in part through your business partnership.

Please email (operations@macuma.org) / fax or mail completed form along with a description of your organization for listing on the website and your support level check (if not paying by credit card) to the MACUMA Executive Office as noted below.
